ABOUT WATCHES.

We Do Not have to speak in third person, when advertising and puffing ourselves and the goods we handle.

We do business on facts—with reliable goods on business principles.

We Do Not pretend to carry the largest stock of goods in our line in the country.

We Do carry a line of watch movements of approved makes, second to none in Northern Michigan.

We Do carry an assortment of gold, filled, silver, and nickel openface and hunting cases, not surpassed in this section.

We have advantages that enable us to give our patrons special inducements.

We Are the only firm in Cheboygan buying its Rockford Watches direct from the factory.

We Are the Only firm in Cheboygan having the legitimate and exclusive right of sale of the Rockford Watch from the company.

We Are the only firm in Cheboygan that can prove its right of sale for the Rockford Watch by certificate from the company.

We are the only firm in Cheboygan recognized by the Rockford Watch Co. as entitled to handle its goods.

We are the only firm in Cheboygan that can consistently give the liberal guarantee we do on the Rockford watch.

We Are the only firm in Cheboygan whose warranty of the Rockford watch is sustained by the manufacturer.

We Do Not keep the Rockford watch to puff or damage the reputation of other makers' goods.

We Do Not keep the Rockford watch alone, we also have the well-known goods of the Waltham, Elgin, Springfield, Hampden, and Lancaster watch companies.

We do sell the "Rockford" as our leading watch, on its superior merits only.

We Will sell you any make of watch you may have a preference for, for what it is and at a fair price.

We Ask you to call on us when in want of anything in our line and compare our goods and prices.

We Know that you will find it to your interest to favor us with your trade if quality and price of goods is an object to you.

Respectfully Yours,
A. L. FEXER,

NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

THURSDAY, MAY 8, 1884.

THE CITY.

W. H. Daly went to Saginaw Monday. George N. Case left Monday for a short visit at Flint.

A signal station is to be established on Mackinac Island.

Mrs. Seymour was sent to Detroit last week by the County.

Dr. Burnett formerly of Cheboygan arrived in town last week.

Some repairs are being made on the Lady May's boiler. Hess is doing the work.

S. S. Mathews of Detroit, U. S. Marshal, arrived in the village Monday night on business.

Curl Newton of St Helena was in the village the latter part of last week, the guest of his brother Arch P.

The speed of the City of Mackinaw last week on her trial trip was 18 miles in one hour and six minutes.

John W. McGinn returned from Bay City Saturday. While there he made a sale of $8,000 worth of pine land.

Dr. S. A. DuPaul and wife left Friday on the Flora, for Roskwood Mich, to attend the funeral of Mrs DuPaul's father.

F. M. Sammons left for Dakota on the Champlain Monday. His son Ralph, Hugh McGovern and James Maher accompanied him.

Edward Walker offers a reward of $50 for the recovery of the body of his brother James who was lost on Bois Blanc Island week before last.

Frank Magoffin and wife, started Monday on the Champlain for the Southern California. They will locate about sixty miles south of Los Angeles

Edward Walker with a party from Mackinac Island searched the north side of Bois Blanc Island for the lost Walker, but was unable to get any trace of him.

The great attraction of the day is the great Bankrupt sale of clothing at the Farrel block. Don't fail to attend. Only a few more days to secure bargains.

Messrs Frawley & Brown have their new grocery room fitted up in a neat and tasty style and Saturday open out with an entire, new and fresh stock of groceries.

Jas. F. Cable proprietor of the John Jacob Astor House, Mackinac was in the village Friday of last week, happy over the opportunity to be out of exile, even for so short a time.

A car load of camp equipage and goods belonging to a party of fifteen from Lansing, who intend locating on Drummond's island, arrived by the extra train Monday night.

Cheboygan will have a first class Restaurant. Tuttle is sparing no money or pains to make his a first class place. He is fitting up a number of rooms in the second story in elegant style for sleeping apartments.

Mattoon & Robinson have thoroughly overhauled their saw mill and made many important improvements. They had up steam yesterday and sawed a few logs to test the machinery. Next week they will start up the mill for the season.

There was a slight disturbance between some of the members of the longshoremen's union and an anti-union man, Saturday night in which we understand the anti-union man got the best, resulting in some eyes put in mourning.

Dasety Parrent entrusted three hundred dollars to Harry Saunders last Thursday to procure him a liquor license. Nothing has been seen since of Saunders or the money. It is supposed Saunders has gone west. It is known he took the freight train to Topinabee, where he purchased a ticket for Bay City and went down on the passenger train.

The Detroit Free Press is of the opinion that two steamers would make a success of the attempt of crossing the straits in the winter from Mackinac City to St. Ignace. We think the experience of the Algoma ought to be sufficient to satisfy any one of the impracticability of the route. Cheboygan to St. Ignace is destined to be the winter, and don't you forget it

The Cass house sports a new hack.

Spencer Barclay left Monday for Saginaw for a brief visit.

W. H. Kelley will start a branch barber shop at Manistique.

H. L. Koehler, of Mullet Lake, spent Monday night in Cheboygan.

Obey Newton will spend the summer at Scotts Point, on the north shore.

Some fine brook trout have been caught in this vicinity, since the first.

The front of Frawley & Brown's grocery is on the aesthetic order, a regular Oscar Wilde treat.

Lew Thora, the old popular steward of the Keweenaw, is now steward on the City of Mackinaw.

Quay & Sons shingle mill is doing good work, they have a good stock of logs to manufacture.

The masons completed the brick work of the vault in the second story of the bank building this week.

Very heavy fogs prevailed both Monday and Tuesday mornings, causing steamers to keep blowing their whistles.

G. L. Walderf, of Indian River paid our village a visit Thursday. He reports business booming at that lively town.

Messrs. Packards started up their saw mill last Thursday. Everything is running smoothly and the mill is doing good work.

R. M. Thompson editor of the TRIBUNE left last Thursday for Louisville, Kentucky, and will be absent about three or four weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Noble, of Elk Rapids were in the village Tuesday. They took passage on the propeller Messenger for Mackinaw.

Chas. H. Nuite's father mother and sister who have been making him a prolonged visit, left last Friday, for their home in Maine

Dan Carmody has sold out his interest in the Carmody, Duggan & Workman saloon. The business will be carried on by the last two named, at the old stand.

A new postoffice has been established in Cheboygan county and is located up towards the head of lower Black River. It is called Manning and Mr. Manning is postmaster.

Messrs. Dodge and Cowan, local inspectors of steamers for this district spent Tuesday in the village. In the forenoon they inspected the propeller Messenger, she passed all right, coming out with flying colors.

The steamer City of Cheboygan has been brought down from Black lake and she starts for Elk Rapids to-day to be placed on the beautiful chain of inland lakes in that section. She takes the place of the Queen of the West, which has been sold by Dexter & Noble and goes to Duluth.

Dr. D. B. King has located in Cheboygan. He has rented the rooms formerly occupied by Dr. W. W. Bowes. The doctor has diplomas from two of the leading Homeopathic medical colleges of the country, and comes to our midst well recommended. He will commence practicing about the 15th.

Captain C. E. Kirtland and family arrived Monday morning on the Champlain. We are glad to welcome the Captain and his most estimable family to Cheboygan. Household goods, dog and cat accompanied them, and they settle down to housekeeping in the north side of Robt. Pattersons double residence on Water street.

Last Sunday evening a full grown bear attacked a young pup belonging to Charles Wilson, of Freedom. Having no other weapons at hand he seized a good sized maple club and made for bruin, and came off victor, killing the bear. Mr. Wilson is over seventy years of age, but at that age is fully as vigorous and active as many a young man

Wednesday of last week, Deputy U. S. Marshall Nuite, chartered the Tug Pendell and went to Seneoaux and returned Thursday with the small schooner Charles Kimbell. She was mortgaged to Charlevoix parties and last fall about the time the mortgage became due she was run off and her owners returned with her sails and reported her as having been wrecked and abandoned. When captured they were engaged in refitting her. The owners are here and the probability is the matter will be arranged so as to prevent the boat from being sold.

The grass begins to show the effect of spring showers.

The masons are at work on the walls of the second story of Crumley's new hotel and have them well up,

H. J. Miner writes Mrs. Miner, that he expects to reach home the latter part of this week.

Ken. McLeod returned Monday evening, from a prospecting tour of a couple of weeks in Dakota.

Our farmers report the best maple sugar harvest this spring, they have had for a number of seasons.

Smith & Adams are shipping considerable dressed lumber, and finished work by nearly every boat.

The Pendell towed out the steamer City of Mackinaw, Monday morning, on account of the river being full of moving logs.

Several packages of trailing arbutus have been sent through the post office to parties in southern Michigan, and different parts Ohio.

H. Chambers, of the mammoth dry-goods house, tells a fresh story this week. It is highly interesting and should be read by all. See his advertisement.

The City of Mackinaw landed four of the celebrated champion reapers and mowers, for McDonald brothers, last Monday. Two of them were self binders.

Captain Chas. E. Kirtland pronounces the Champlain as good a steamer as floats on the lakes, and no one is better qualified to give an opinion on steamers, than the Captain.

Post Riddock, G. A. R., met last Saturday night, and mustered in two new recruits. Another meeting will be held Saturday night when several new recruits are to be mustered in.

The TRIBUNE is indebted to Harry Conant, Secretary of state, for three volumes of joint documents for the year of 1881 and a copy each of the House and Senate Journals of the session of 1883.

Capt Fred. Johnson, formerly Master of the Queen of the West, the handsome little steamer, in the inland lakes at Elk Rapids, arrived in Cheboygan Tuesday, coming after the steamer City of Cheboygan.

Dowling & Veeder are going to put new clothes on their billiard tables, and are in receipt of several sets of new billiard balls, and propose having the Metropolitan in shape so that all lovers of this fine game can enjoy it.

We would call attention to the new advertisement of W & A McArthur. They are in receipt of their new spring stock, selected by Mr Eddy with a due regard to the wants of the community, and they solicit a call from everybody.

The schooner Moonlight, bound to Buffalo from Chicago with a cargo of grain, run aground Monday morning, some six or seven miles above this port. Capt. Brown, of the Van Raalte, discovered her and went to her and pulled her off.

President Frost has rented the residence of Col H. G. Davis, and he and brother Fred propose soon to set up housekeeping on their own hook. A sister is coming to preside over their household affairs, and provide the sunshine for the home circle.

Rev. Willis Cladk and Rev. A. W. Westgate changed pulpits last Sunday evening. Rev. Clark found that the Congregationalists differed from the Baptists in one respect—they are not fond of water, the slight rain of that evening, making quite a difference in the size of the audience.

The Van Raalte, notwithstanding the dense fog of Monday and Tuesday, made her round trip between this port and Sault, and was only a few hours behind time, arriving down Tuesday evening. Capt. Brown surprised some of the old navigators by the skill he showed in making the run of St. Mary's river in such a fog.

J. W. Fitzgerald, editor of the Ovid Union, one of the liveliest papers in the state, has a new boy in his family, and notices the arrival thusly: "Thanks to Mrs. J. W. Fitzgerald for a 10 pound boy, which she called us up last night at 12.05 to receive; she has kindly consented to look after the little fellow for us for a time at least, which thoughtfulness we take as a personal favor; we have never run a nursery department in connection with our paper. Beasts all, the kind, class and number of presents a newspaper man is called upon to receive."
